Focus: Speaking/Vocabulary

Spoken English: Confessions

1 Read the following short dialogues to see how you can 'confess' something.

a) Well, shall I tell you what really happened?

Oh, come off it, I know everything already.

b) Jennifer, there's something I must tell you.

I'm sorry, I'm just not interested anymore.

c) But why on earth did you leave them like that?

When you hear what I have to say, you'll understand.

d) It's not really easy for me to work with them, I must confess.

But why? They seem really nice people.

e) Are you sure you want to talk about this?

Are you sure you want me to talk about this?

f) I think something's eating you and I think you should talk about it.

OK, here goes. I've got something to tell you that you might not like.

2 Now translate the Hungarian parts of the following dialogues with a word or an expression from exercise 1 (try to do it without looking back).

Well, elmondjam _____ what really happened?

Oh, hagyd már _____, I know everything already.

Jennifer, van valami, amit el kell mondanom _____.

I'm sorry, I'm just not interested anymore.

It's not really easy for me to work with them, be kell vallanom _____.

But why? They seem really nice people.

Are you sure you want to talk about this?

Are you sure, hogy azt akarod, hogy beszéljek róla _____?

I think hogy valami emészt _____ and I think you should talk about it.

OK, akkor hát kezdem _____. I've got something to tell you that you might not like.
